

From the cold water swimmers, the dock builders, and the long distance swimmers of the world

Hello friends, I hope your summer is going well!

As you guys know for the last two years we have been sponsoring a polar plunge for Camp Sunshine on New Years Day down at Coney Island.

We helped raise $55-60,000.00 over the past two years.

That brave little girl, Sienna Cavallo, is our poster child.

At this time Sienna is having a hard time and is on experimental drugs.

Dock Builders union # 1456 and the commercial divers have stepped up to the plate, and will donate $1,000.00 and the extraordinary services of Strongman Steve Ekstance.

On Sunday, July 27, 2008, starting at NOON, Steve will pull a dump truck with his teeth and dead lift thousands of pounds in a fund raiser in Coney Island.

The event will take place at the Beer Garden behind Steve's Grill.

At the heart of Coney Island, Brooklyn NY. Come down and show that you have some heart and some caring for a little girl who has more strength and courage than all of us.

PLEASE COME DOWN AND SAY HI TO SIENNA AND SUPPORT THIS GREAT CAUSE!

Camp Sunshine will be present. The event will go on rain or shine.
